

Flipping the Script: A Women in Entertainment Symposium UCLA School of Law

California Lawyers for the Arts is pleased to present this day-long symposium designed specifically for women working in the film, television, and music industries. Don't miss out on this full day of cutting-edge panels, keynote presentations, roundtable discussions, and networking sessions dedicated to empowering women through an increased knowledge of legal and business issues in the entertainment industry.

Join us on Saturday, April 10, 2010, at the UCLA School of Law and hear the insiders' tips from some of the most established women in the entertainment industry. This event will equip its participants with effective strategies to address issues impacting women in film, music, and television. Topics will include seminars on employment and sexual discrimination, legal tips and strategies from women leaders in the industry, and financing your creative projects.
